The India-US World Affairs Institute shall be taking a High Technology Business Mission to India, which has been designated as a Certified Trade Mission of the U.S. Department of Commerce. This kind of mission has had a record of success in creating international business opportunities for American companies for almost 13 years, bringing together the power of business interests and Federal Government support.

Scheduled for November 26 - December 3, 2011, the Mission (HTBM) will provide U.S. companies in several high-technology sectors and educational institutions with an opportunity to experience first hand the substantial opportunities that exist in India. Business Mission delegates will spend about one-and-a-half to two days each in Hyderabad, Mumbai, and New Delhi. The Certified Trade Mission will run parallel to Maryland Governor's Trade Delegation.

Governor Martin O'Malley will be leading the first ever gubernatorial trade delegation from Maryland to India, and the India-US World Affairs Institute has been designated as the official partner for the Governor's Trade Delegation. Companies and educational institutions accompanying the Governor's Trade Delegation may register with the India-US World Affairs Institute to benefit from the package of services being offered to participants in the High Technology Business Mission.
